This is a sweet/clean Amish Christian Romance with no explicit scenes, with a surprise BONUS inside!

Hannah and Miriam Miller are two sisters. They do everything together, and always have.

Ever since their mother passed away when they were young, Miriam made it a point to turn Hannah into a younger version of herself, and she would have succeeded.

There is just one issue.

Hannah is her own person. She has her own skills, her own mind, and her own likes...which becomes a problem when they both like the same man!

Who is going to be the one to get the guy? The girl with all of the skills and the tricks of the trade, or the girl who has a heart of gold?

Only one of them can marry the man of their dreams, but the choice is his to make. Which of them is he going to pick?

Will their father even give his blessing on the marriage?
