Imagine you could be anybody that you wanted for one night. You could dress up in a magical costume and party until the sun came up. Nobody not even your mother, if you had a mother, would know it was you.

Suppose you learned a woman that you'd always wanted but had rejected you a million times, was attending the party, too. What do you do? Would you go to the party? If you went, who would you be and what would you wear? How would you recognize her?

I'm your baby tonight but what about tomorrow, has a cast of African American women with diverse personalities, that will make you laugh, cry and fall in love.

This book is intended for mature audiences.
