HE NEVER BELIEVED LOVE WAS IN THE CARDS FOR HIM.

As one of the elite bodyguards for his best friend, movie star Rob Deacon, 33-year-old Liam Neely lives the perfect bachelor life. He doesn't think anything is missing, until he meets Rob's assistant, Jenna. Despite his insistence that he doesn't do relationships, he finds himself falling in love with the computer genius, hard and fast. With family baggage, trust issues, and a lack of experience actually trying to make things work, he's fighting an uphill battle. Will it be a case of better late than never, or too little, too late with the only one who ever truly mattered?

SHE KNEW HE WAS WRONG.

For 32-year-old Jenna Ackerman, life has always come easily. Brilliant, beautiful, and wealthy, she could live the life of a socialite as expected. Instead, she uses her brains to become a cybersecurity expert and lands—not by chance—a job as the woman behind the curtain for movie star Deac Roberts. Rob becomes her very best friend and the one man for whom she'd walk through fire. He's her main focus, until the day he introduces her to Liam. For the first time in her life, calm, cool, collected Jenna is turned upside down.

Love is a complicated dance. Can Jenna and Liam manage to make the choreography work? Or will the past stand in their way?
