Written by a local guidebook writer, the Jewish Athens & Greece Special Interest Tour Edition supplement (29 pages) is for those wanting the most from their trip by knowing the Jewish-related connections: history, ancient and modern sites, synagogues, statues and cemeteries, museum memorabilia and war memorials, as well as specialty food info, for Athens and around Greece (Halkida, Volos, Trikala, Larissa, Ioannina, Thessaloniki, Veria, Crete, Rhodes, Corfu). The supplement is attached to an up-to-date guidebook, 'Athens with Kids (and not only)' that has details specific to families, such as a separate chapter for playgrounds. Otherwise the information, conveniently listed by area, on the sites, things to do and places to go (indoor/outdoor, winter/summer), drop-in hotel pools, beaches, drop-in meditation/yoga, day-spa and religious services, hairdressers... as well as the nearest nightspots in ever-changing Athens and vicinity, including details on what to expect, times, prices, and how to get there on public transport, plus emergency/hospital info, is pertinent to any visitor. Travel, restaurants, hotels, shopping (organic, Greek-made, etc), entertainment, events & holidays, and shorter Biblical Athens and Jewish Athens tours are also part of the guidebook, together with planning advice, quick-reference maps and an index.
