Kissing Mr. Right Michelle Major

Kendall Clark has always dreamed of anchoring the national news. The dedicated Denver journalist has worked hard to earn more than her fluff-piece reporting job. When she's asked to star in an on-air dating show to increase her station's ratings, she initially refuses...until she learns that participating will give her a shot at a national news-desk position in New York.

But nothing prepares Kendall for the dating show's popularity—or for the laughable dates she's forced to endure on camera. To complicate matters further, she's falling hard for Tyler Bishop, the handsome scientist hired to consult on her first big news story. Ty soon finds himself equally smitten with Kendall and sets out to prove he's her Mr. Right. But is there room in his quiet life for a woman with such a public image? And when Kendall's integrity is questioned, will she choose her dream job or her dream man?
