To all the lovers of this grand game of golf. A true appreciation for and understanding of how the Ernest Jones Method was inspired by Sir Walter Simpson's "The Art Of Golf" can only be achieved by reading the original work for yourself – BOOK I of these two golf classics (edited, formatted and illustrated.) A true appreciation for and understanding of the Ernest Jones Method can only be achieved by reading "The Golf Swing – Ernest Jones Method" for yourself – BOOK II of these two golf classics (edited, formatted and illustrated.) In these two golf classics we present the original writings and illustrations from the 1880s and the 1920s. We are amazed at the clarity behind the thoughts of those times that unveil themselves to us as universal truths seemingly unaffected by the passing of time. And as readers have commented to us "some inconvenient truths about the modern day professional teaching system." There is an inherent danger to studying our golf swing closely. Information by itself is dangerous, it can destroy our game. We swing our best when we have the fewest things to think about. It's amazing how difficult this game is when we are playing poorly, and how simple it is when we are playing well. Stand and swing.... golf can be this simple!
