The long journey home : the true story of Mary Draper Ingles, early pioneer of the Virginia Colony

Leslie Grady Wade

Excerpt from the Prologue: Allow me to introduce myself, I am Mary Draper Ingles, the main character in Long Journey Home. I was one of the first people to live in a small pioneer settlement called Draper's Meadows in the wester part of the Virginia Colony in the year 1752. Today's Draper's Meadows is called Blacksburg, Virginia. It is located near the Blue Ridge Mountains. What you are about to read is a true story about real people and their experiences living in the open land called the wilderness.
