Knights in White Satin Philip K. DiPirro

A 60-year old kidnapping of a young wife and mother in Buffalo. Extortion and murder. Money stolen from the mob. Two young boys lose their inheritance and are orphaned. And that's just the beginning. In the present, Truax Industries is a mega Los Angeles company seeded from the stolen money. While the orphans of the past suffered poor miserable lives Birch Truax, the founder's son, has reaped the rewards of the orphans' money. His father always avoided the limelight, fearful of the vengeful mob. But Birch is tired of the old ways. Birch's ambition opens wounds of the past. History begins to repeat itself when the granddaughter of the women murdered in 1941 is also kidnapped. Buffalo becomes the focal point of revenge and greed. Only Conner - an aging, trouble detective - and the Knights in White Satin are left to fight Truax, solve the riddle of the past, reverse injustice, and deliver retribution.
