ROMANCE: PARANORMAL ROMANCE Claimed by the Alpha (BBW Wolf Shifter Romance) C.J. Ayers

Curvy Eva Haywood, a brainy Harvard Business School student, has come back home to the sleepy town of Beaver Creek in Yukon. Rather than follow her peers to high-flying jobs in the big city, Eva returns to her hometown to help her father run his diner, but just for the summer. After all, she's lucky enough to have a high-powered fiancé back in the city awaiting her return.

"If he doesn't set your heart on fire, then leave him before you're dying on the inside and flirting with the gardener."

Why can't Eva get those words out of her head?

The truth is, there's only one man that has ever set Eva's heart on fire. Ever since she was little, Eva has silently worshiped a local resident, Sebastian (Seb) Waverly. He and his father run a small lumber business. But sexy Sebastian is a brooding wild card, spurning most of the women who regularly throw themselves in his path. There's no way he'd fall for a curvy girl like her. In fact, he has never muttered more than a few words to Eva.

No. No hearts afire for Eva. Her place is back in the city in a "pleasant" relationship with her "nice" fiancé.

Unknown to all but himself, Seb is head over heels in love with Eva and always has been. But, he firmly believes she's too good for a man like him. So, even though he's noticed her for as long as he can remember, he only ever watches from afar. Now that she's back, though, maybe, just maybe, he can finally gather the courage to talk to the one and only woman who renders him tongue tied and speechless when comes anywhere near her.

Everything changes, though, one crisp, clear evening when Seb is attacked by a wolf. Although he manages to kill the wolf, he suffers a bite in the struggle. When he awakens the next morning, Seb learns that those old tales, the ones he grew up with and has since scoffed, the ones of humans shifting forms to become wolves, are all true. And, now that he has killed the alpha of a shifter pack, tradition dictates he must lead the pack as its new alpha.

His first task as new alpha? Paying his respects to the slain alpha's daughter – Eva.

Can Eva ever forgive the only man who has ever set her heart on fire?

How can Sebastian ever be able to win the hand of the only woman his heart has ever truly belonged to?
