A Sweet Clean Mail-Order Bride Romance by Ann Laurel

Amelia Shaw had a beautiful life at one time but after the war, her life forever changed. Now she faces a whole new life again due to acts of nature.

A lonely widower in Wyoming places a mail-order bride ad looking for a bright young woman to marry. He prays that the first person to answer his ad is the one God wants him to choose.

Amelia finds herself being carried along by the throes of circumstances beyond her control. With the help of a kind, new friend she sees hope in her otherwise lonely existence when he shows her a magazine with the mail-order bride's ads in the back.

For Amelia to have a happy life again, she has to be willing to take a leap of faith.

This book is a clean, inspirational western historical romance. Though it is a part of The Cattlemen's Wives Series, it is a standalone book with a happily ever after ending. Read The Cattlemen's Wives in any order!
