They Come from Different Worlds ...

James Johnson is a rough and rugged white man back from two tours of duty in Afghanistan. Due to circumstances beyond his control, he finds himself homeless in Seattle. He meets Sierra Davis, a gorgeous, college senior who devotes her spare time to helping the homeless when she's not busy partying. Determined to spend more time with her, he hides the fact he is homeless as they grow closer together.

When his secret is revealed, they are both stunned by an even more shocking realization and a surprising betrayal. The young, pampered, rich woman learns what it truly means to be homeless. When her life is put in danger, James risks everything to save her. Can they learn to find in each other what they so desperately need to survive? Is home truly where the heart is?
