A children's favourite, illustrated with fun and character.

Take three hungry goats and one even hungrier troll, throw in a rickety bridge and a field where the grass is always greener and you have the all the elements for one of the most popular children's stories. But these hungry goats know that there's only one obstacle between them and the lush green grass just over the bridge in the neighbouring field – a grumpy troll who's prone to gobbling up passers by. So how will the goats get to the other side of the river? Find out in Alan Smith's re-telling of the story which comes complete with Michelle Lawrence's illustrations and the troll's unfortunate wind problem!
