When a lawless teenage biker gang terrorizes his small-town diner, and he is forced to defend his staff from attack, Ben has no clue that he will find love in the shape of the gang's leader, the one they call Skinner.

As an unlikely ally when his bikers get out of control, Skinner reveals a deeper, vulnerable side to Ben, laying bare his fears for his future, and the reaction of his family when he reveals his true nature to them.

As a kindred spirit, and one who appreciates the difficulties of being a gay man in a small town, Ben is irrevocably drawn to the biker leader, risking his gentle nature in a world where exposure can have painful consequences.
