People say it all the time. They even text it: "OMG!" But does God take offense at such a casual use of His name? Or, are we just getting nit-picky with details--surely God can overlook such "small" things, right?

This message by Dr. Brian Evans focuses on the Third Commandment which teaches us to safeguard the use of God's name. The question is simple: Are you using God's name in vain, even in ways that you're unaware of? In other words, are you using His name in vain without using your mouth (or quick texting)? Hmmmm... Is God that relevant to our everyday lives?

Be spiritually pricked by this focus on the Third Commandment in ways that may catch you off guard--so be warned! Be spiritually fed, be challenged, be engaged!
