Angels Are Watching Janie Knappenberger

For five years, a serial rapist had terrorized the small community of Simi Valley in Southern California. By July 4th, 2001 he had added murder to his list of crimes when he shot a twenty-year-old college student, Megan Barroso with an Ak-47. The Simi Valley Police and the Ventura County Task Force did not realize that they had their man, Vincent Sanchez, locked up on a petty robbery charge. Sanchez had kept this horrible secret from his family and friends, roommates, and his girlfriend of three years. It was evident, after serving on this jury through the four-month trial that parts of this story might never be told. This is the story as it unraveled.....
