"I was done seeing her being abused..."

Brandon always knew that there was something wrong with Kami. And he knew that it wasn't about her, but something that was happening to her. He knew the fun loving little girl who tried to pry information from him when they were younger. But the shell who walks through the corridors and whimpers when she's hit is someone different.

Fed up with all the secrets, he tries to pry information out of her, much like how she did to him years ago.

But how will he drive away those who want to conquer Kami like she's property? What can he possibly do to stop them?
