The Ebony Finches: Transition Magic Book Three (The Transition Magic Series 3) J.E. Hopkins

The Ebony Finches is the third book the Transition Magic series.

Transition. The one-month period during early puberty when all children have the power to perform magic. But with a monstrous catch. The magic must be unique or the child dies. Only a desperate few take the risk. Almost all who do, perish.

The Department of Transition Security receives a report that an adolescent girl in Ticonderoga, New York has entered a corrupted form of Transition. DTS agent John Benoit rushes to Ticonderoga and learns that the disease allows afflicted children to perform magic without limitation before they ultimately die. Reports of the same devastating condition and the unrestrained use of magic begin to flood into the DTS from around the world, while an American terrorist forces his afflicted son to use magic in a war against the US government.

John and his partner, Stony Hill—a fiery, pierced, purple-haired agent half his age—roll into action in a world permanently marred by the deadly pandemic’s unrestrained magic.
