At 2:00 a.m. the great Titanic lay wounded in the middle of the ocean with two lifeboats remaining. In twenty minutes there would be nothing left between the 1,600 people on board and the icy waters of the Atlantic. The brand new liner - the largest and most luxurious in the world - would sink. Titanic at Two A.M. describes the suspenseful minutes leading to the final dramatic plunge of the ship with fifteen color illustrations and numerous black and white photographs. Survivor accounts throughout the book will put you up front and close to the final events of a tragedy which has become a legend.

Titanic At Two A.M. Hurry, there isn't much time.
