A to Z: Novel Ideas for Reading Teachers is a wonderful resource for anyone who teaches reading. The book is full of activities that give students the chance to explore their insights into literature in a variety of ways—through writing, poetry, art, research, and making personal connections to characters, quotations, and events.

The teacher-tested, hands-on activities engage students of all levels and learning styles. Best of all, they are designed so that teachers can use them with any novel. In fact, many of the activities are also appropriate to use with short stories, biographies, autobiographies, and other reading material as well. A to Z was written by two reading teachers with many years of experience in the classroom. It is practical, full of ideas, and adaptable for many situations!
