Loving Michael Miavella S. Vernon

My name is Miavella and I met and loved an amazing man. I was born in Martinique and attended a boarding school in Paris, France. Upon the death of my parents at the age of twenty-one, I met and married a charming Italian man who turned out to be a member of organized crime. Vulnerable and terrified I fled quickly and took refuge in a boarding school for nursing in Sicily, Italy. In 1988, I was returning to my home Martinique. A stop in Paris, France launched my first encounter with a disguised man. This began my love affair with Michael Jackson. Michael Jackson fans will find a glimpse behind the entertainer they loved; to the man who kept his life very private. Some will see this as a fairytale; others will see a true love story. To me, it was a little both. No matter how you choose to view this period of our life together, you will hopefully gain an intriguing insight into his life, and our shared secret, and the burning passion that we both shared. My story is based on what Michael shared with me, not what he told the whole world.
