Fannie, young, beautiful with dark raven hair, is due to marry Harry on Valentine's Day, but she is left devastated and heartbroken when he breaks off the engagement. Fannie falls ill, but discovers she is not sick but with child. Harry dismisses this news and deems her a harlot and that the child is not his. Harry threatens to tell everyone and damage her reputation in town. Fannie is distraught, she just wants love, but who will want her now. Fannie answers an advert for a bride placed by Jack a cattle ranch owner, they decide to marry on Valentine's Day. Fannie decides to keep her past and her baby a secret from Jack, fearing it would ruin her happiness, she leaves her baby behind with her mother. But Fannie becomes guilty and longs to be with her baby.... Fannie makes a difficult choice, between her new husband who she loves deeply and her baby...what choice does she make and what will the repercussions be? Valentine's Day has great consequences for Fannie...but will it be the right ones?
