Red Flags Brandi L. Bates

"A larger than life philosopher-poet and International author of bestselling books" —The New York Times Book Review Murder, manipulation, and espionage...is at the core of Red Flags. Patricia Garbutt, a beautiful yet brilliant hardworking homicide detective for the Atlanta Police Department suddenly finds herself immersed in the world of a sadistic serial killer. Her secretive partner, Detective Jake Billingsley, is not who he seems to be. During the course of cracking the Roth Case, Detective Patricia Garbutt's world comes crumbling a part from pillar to post. She learns the hard way that what can go wrong will go wrong. She uncovers a secret about her husband that threatens the stability of their household and she later learns that she can't trust anyone on the force. Someone very close to her is a CIA operative double-agent.
