You want to do this mom thing right.

Nothing draws more advice than a woman with a new baby. Parents, in-laws, friends, and complete strangers all like to offer their two cents when it comes to the way you raise your child. Add all the books about parenting strategies and you've got a recipe for guilt, competitiveness, and hurt feelings.

The New Mom's Guide to Finding Your Own Mothering Style isn't a book of feeding plans and sleep schedules. It encourages you to discover your own approach to raising your unique child. From graciously disagreeing with grandparents to starting a new mom support structure to preserving your own identity, the sage advice in this book is sure to bolster your confidence and brighten your day.

You can do this! The New Mom's Guides are here to help.
