This book is a collection of humorous vignettes that deals with universal experiences we've all shared, but they're viewed through a quirky prism that will make you laugh at the absurdities of life. Everyone's seen the effects of plumbing gone amuck, travel plans gone awry, and unruly pets, so much of the book is family humor; but then there are those chapters that will appeal to the truly weird at heart—over-the-top goofiness that will make you grin until your cheeks hurt, roll your eyes until they turn up cherries, groan, and laugh out loud. None of that abridged LOL stuff allowed, mind you; you have to guffaw until people stare, and then I rather expect that you'll be too embarrassed to tell them what it is that you find so funny. So go ahead and be weird, even if it is vicariously, because there is no better way to spend a day than with a smile on your face and ridiculous sounds of mirth escaping from your mouth.
