Bear-ly Human (Bear Claw Security Book 4) Terry Bolryder

Hercules is an ex special forces soldier working as a bodyguard, and a mystery to everyone around him. His friends just know him as an extremely competent soldier and a great teammate and person. But beneath his bronzed, muscled exterior is a heart scarred by a complicated past. A past in which he loved only one woman, but wasn't allowed to be with her. But just as Hercules has decided to focus on work and put everything else aside, the woman he has always loved comes striding through the front door of Bear Claw Security with an assignment just for him. Protect her by pretending to be her fiancé. But how do you pretend to be something you desperately want to be in real life?

Valerie Niles, or Hera to her old military buddies, served for years as an intelligence specialist for Special Forces shifter units. But now the competent she-bear is back, with new curves and a new mission-convince the love of her life that it was a mistake to break up and they are meant to be together. Hera knows her plan is perfect, because over-protective Hercules can't ever resist a chance to be the hero. But the only thing that may need protecting is his her heart, because Hercules is more closed off than she even remembered, and if she can't get the wary bear to finally give up the secrets that have haunted them for years, she may just lose the love of her life for a second time.

Bear-ly Human is a full-length shifter romance with action, adventure, steamy scenes, shocking secrets and a growly bear hero who likes to get physical. Enjoy!
