Daddy's Little Girl Tonya M Barber

At age 17, Michelle was dealt a devastating blow to the heart when her father died. Never in a million years would she have thought she'd have to say goodbye so soon. As if watching her dad suffer in his last day wasn't enough, she had been given the responsibility of making the final arrangements and planning his home going service. This is an emotional story of a little girl's undying love for her father, a love that not even death could take away.
