Glimpses of Life After Life: Near-Death Experiences and After-Death Communications Ronald N Beshara STL

Glimpses of Life After Life is intended to initiate an open, valuable discussion among the experts from medicine and religion and the thousands of people who died or crossed over to afterlife and lived to talk about the experience. Very often, people who had a near-death experience (NDE) seem unable to fully grasp or to logically explain what happened, but what happened was and is real. The NDE event is unique and spiritual and a time of wonder and confusion for the person who experienced it. What is most evident for the people who had a near-death experience is that there is not the slightest doubt that the event occurred; the near-death experiencers (NDErs) did have some unusual event occur. The NDErs never forget it and the NDErs are never the same.
