She Ate Her Spinach: A Love Story Joe Pritchard

This is a heart-warming love story written by Joe Pritchard as he reflected back over nearly 62 years of married life with his wife, Maddy. Joe selected the title for this book based upon an event that occurred when Maddy was a student in high school. The teacher asked what Maddy wanted to do in life. Maddy said she was going to fly airplanes! Her teacher laughed, "Then you'd better eat your spinach!" Well, Maddy must have eaten lots of spinach because she fulfilled her dream of flying airplanes and so much more as she and Joe shared life together. They embodied the very best of what news commentator, Tom Brokaw, once called, "the greatest generation of all." You are in for a quite a treat as you read this wonderful love story!
