2011 NIU Huskies: The MAC Championship Season Daily Chronicle Staff

All season, the Northern Illinois University football team had something to prove.

Players and first-year coach Dave Doeren talked about it extensively in the preseason.

At media day at Ford Field, I'll never forget the look quarterback Chandler Harnish had on his face when his eyes drifted from the press box to the field.

"We need to get back here," he told me.

Harnish wasn't the only one who said so. He wasn't the only one who wanted to erase the memories of a last-minute loss in the Mid-American Conference title game. The Huskies wanted to prove they were worthy of being called champions, of walking off that field in Detroit with happiness.

This season was all about showing NIU and the community that the Huskies could do just that – and more.

Doeren and the Huskies talked about doing things the hard way. That was none more evident than at the MAC title game.

Down 20-0, the Huskies staged the largest comeback in modern school history, ending on a game-winning field goal from kicker Mathew Sims. It was NIU's first MAC title since 1983, allowing the Huskies to celebrate their long journey to a championship.

That journey is what you'll find in the pages of this commemorative magazine.

You'll be able to relive each game from the season – from the season-opening victory against Army all the way to the GoDaddy.com Bowl game win over Arkansas State.

Every high, every low from each game throughout this MAC title season is here: the record-setting shootout in Toledo, the last-second loss at Kansas and the last-second win against Ball State.

Along with that, relive the season through photos from each game.

This magazine is a unique opportunity to go back and experience those same feelings you had after each NIU game.

Page through and read again and again about how the Huskies went on a seven-game win streak in conference play to clinch a second straight MAC West Division title and back-to-back berths in the conference title game. Or take another look at Harnish becoming only the 10th quarterback in FBS history to pass for 200 yards and run for 200 in the same game when he did it against Western Michigan. It's all here, in full color glossy pages for NIU fans to enjoy forever.

This was an unforgettable season for the Huskies. One that will be remembered as the year NIU proved it could win it all.
