Construction Law & Risk Management - Vol II J. Kent Holland

This book compiles and organizes case notes, articles, and papers written by well known and respected attorneys and professional consultants for original publication in a number of newsletters. Articles that do not include a specific byline were written by Kent Holland and first published in ConstructionRisk.com Report or in the International Risk Management Institute's Expert Commentary (www.irmi.com). The cases and articles included in this book demonstrate risk management principles to be considered and applied on construction projects. The intent is to give a sampling of issues and cases, providing risk management ideas and information to serve as a useful resource for contractors, design professionals, project owners, attorneys, educators, risk managers, and insurance professionals. This book is based primarily on case notes published in Volumes 5, 6, and 7 between 2002 through 2005.
