The company commander shall keep an account of every deposit made by a soldier on the company book, and shall transmit to the Paymaster-General, after each payment, a list of the depositors and the amounts deposited by them respectively. b. In case of the transfer of a soldier, his descriptive roll shall exhibit the several amounts deposited by him. 6. On the discharge of a soldier, the amount of his deposits shall be entered on his final statements, and paid on settlement of the same. 7. On the death of a soldier, his deposits shall be accounted for in the inventory of his effects and on the accompanying final statements. 8. The money deposited by any soldier shall not be liable to forfeiture by sentence of court-martial. 9. Paymasters will receive the deposits of the soldiers in their respective districts, credit the same in their accounts current, and furnish a list of the depositors, with the several sums deposited by each, to accompany their accounts and vouchers of disbursements. The sums thus received by the paymasters may be again used by them in the payment of troops. 10. The Paymaster-General shall keep in his office such record as may be necessary to show the deposits made by the enlisted men of each company. 1386. Paymasters will afford Sutlers every facility in the collection of the amounts due them in accordance with regulations 217 and 218. 1387. Officers absent from their appropriate duties, either wit...
