Two American Girls, Alysa and Julie, visit England's Windsor Castle hoping to see Queen Mary's famous Doll House. But the day turns into a much bigger adventure than that; caught in a thunderstorm they find themselves locked in for the night! Taking refuge in the Queen's Bedchamber they learn that strange things can happen after dark; they meet some famous and not-so-famous characters from English History, including some terrifying beasties who are not supposed to come to life. And as if that's not they find themselves pitted in a battle of wits with a couple of ruthless art thieves who have the run of teh Castle's secret passages and doorways.
