Sixteen year old Anna Sawyer was murdered last night outside the wood in a park not too far away from her home.

The detective assigned to her case: Marty Bennet. At twenty-two she's the youngest officer in her precinct to ever make detective and she's known for seeing the end the mystery before the criminal even suspects they're a suspect let alone that they're about to get caught for whatever crime they committed.

The main suspect: Elizabeth (Liz) Sawyer. Anna's twin sister and complete opposite. Where Anna was head cheerleader, student body president, and most popular girl; Liz is the school's outcast. Everyone knows who she is and everyone hates her, she's the Queen Bee's freak of a sister. But there's something darker going on with Liz that no one knows. A secret that only one other person knew. And that person's dead now.

But is this case really as clear cut as everyone think?
