Urban Weather John Clark

URBAN WEATHER - a satirical thriller. Would it come as a surprise that the picturesque English Cathedral City of Lincoln is a global centre for the distant death and destruction business, and Brussels a nest of deeply corrupt, ruthless and self-centred opportunists, or that the London Government have ridden roughshod over the interests of the people for so long that no-one seems to notice any more? Sally runs a company called 'Urban Weather', which has automated weather stations around the globe, but she is more expert in assassination than meteorology. Should it come as a surprise that her other little company, 'Executive Assertion' is better known as 'Ex Ass'?
